16	Defendant CHARLES LOBELLC	O ("Charles"), through his attorney, John R. Lusk, Esq.,
17	respectfully moves this Court for an Orde	er extending by two-weeks (14 days) the current date of April
18	15, 2013, for Charles to self-surrender to	the facility designated by the Bureau of Prisons for service of 19	his sentence. This motion is made because	se Charles did not receive the notice from the Marshall's
20	Service as to the facility designated by the	e BOP until the afternoon of April 10, 2013. This allows only
21	four and one-half days for Charles to make	ke transportation and hotel reservations to arrive at the
22	designated facility by April 15 th .
23	On such short notice, the air fare a	alone will double in costs. Also, Charles has many third
24	parties to notify as to where he can be con	ntacted in the future and how to care for his 90-year old father
25	who has been hospitalized twice within the	ne past week. At least two weeks (14 days) is requested in order to make the necessary travel arrangements and to give notice and directions to third parties.

Undersigned counsel represents that he spoke with the Marshall's Service on April 9. 2013, and was advised that the notice to Charles was being sent out that day. As stated above, Charles received it
